Verksamhetsstöd samt projektbidrag till Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF) 2010

3 bilagor

Ärendet

Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF) har till Regeringskansliet (Utrikesdepartementet) inkommit med en ansökan om verksamhetsstöd samt projektbidrag för perioden juli 2010 - 30 juni 2011. Sverige har tidigare bidragit med obundet organisationsstöd till DCAF sedan år 2004, och har även stött organisationen med enskilda projektstöd. År 2009 uppgick Utrikesdepartementets stöd till DCAF till 1 300 000 schweiziska franc (UF2009/72884/SP). Det sammanlagda bidraget var uppdelat enligt följande: 800 000 schweiziska franc gavs som obundet verksamhetsstöd, 300 000 schweiziska franc gavs för användande till DCAF:s Mellanösternprojekt och 200 000 schweiziska franc fick användas för säkerhetssektorreform (SSR) i Västafrika.

DCAF är en stiftelse med säte i Genève. Stiftelsen samarbetar med regeringar och det civila samhället för att stärka den demokratiska och civila kontrollen av olika säkerhetssektorsorgan. Verksamheten utgörs främst av rådgivning, forskning, påverkansarbete och utbildning. DCAF anses tillhöra de främsta inom området säkerhetssektorreform (SSR) och anlitas flitigt av EU, Nato och FN.

En betydande del av det kärnstöd Sverige gett till DCAF har använts till löner av två heltidsanställda DCAF-medarbetare, båda svenska medborgare. 2009 kom en del av det obundna stödet också att användas som bidrag för att uppnå status som full kärnmedlem i det s.k. International Security Sector Advisory Team (ISSAT).

DCAF har verkat i de palestinska områdena sedan 2005. Arbetet inriktas på att stärka säkerhetssektorn i de palestinska områdena genom att utveckla civila institutioner och normer. Insatserna utgörs främst av seminarier och utbildning inom SSR för bland andra parlamentariker, poliser samt representanter för och civilanställda vid den palestinska myndigheten (PA) och National Security Council.

Projektet rörande gender och SSR i Västafrika initierades 2008 av DCAF tillsammans med en afrikansk partnerorganisation (Women Peace and Security Network – Africa), med syftet att stärka integrationen kvinnor i pågående SSR-processer och stärka kapaciteten bland kvinnor som arbetar med SSR i Västafrika.

Konteringssträng i Utrikesdepartementets redovisning: kostnadsställe 42353, finansiering 7130206, verksamhet 1253601, motpart 8888.

Regeringskansliets beslut

Regeringskansliet (Utrikesdepartementet) beslutar att lämna ett sammanlagt bidrag på 1 400 000 schweiziska franc (högst 9 900 000 kronor) till Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of the Armed Forces (DCAF) i obundet verksamhetsbidrag samt projektstöd. Det sammanlagda bidraget är uppdelat som följer: 900 000 schweiziska franc ges som obundet verksamhetsstöd, 300 000 schweiziska franc ges för användande till DCAF:s Mellanösternprojekt och 200 000 schweiziska franc får användas för säkerhetssektorreform i Västafrika. De obundna medlen får användas till personaltillsättningar.

För medlens användning gäller de allmänna villkor (Standard Conditions) som bifogas (bil. 1). Bidraget avser verksamhet längst till den 31 juli 2011 och medlen ska ha rekvirerats senast den 15 december 2010 med användande av bifogade blankett ”Contribution Request Form”, (bil. 2).

Utgiften ska belasta det för budgetåret 2010 under utgiftsområde 7 Internationellt bistånd upptagna ramanslaget 1:1 Bistandsverksamhet, anslagsposten 28 Konfliktthantering.

DCAF ska senast den 31 oktober 2011 lämna en redogörelse för verksamheten, inklusive en ekonomisk redogörelse för hur medlen har använts i enlighet med punkten 5 i Standard Conditions och med användande av bifogade ”Guidelines for Reporting” (bil. 3). Eventuellt outnyttjade medel ska återbetalas vid samma tidpunkt för att återföras till anslagsposten.

Beslutet har fattats av chefen för enheten för säkerhetspolitik, departementsrådet Nils Daag.

- Salaries, taxes and other personnel costs
- Premises
- Travel
- Office costs
- Costs for audits
- Other costs

Contribution by the Recipient

August 2010

3. REQUISITION AND DISBURSEMENT

The Recipient shall submit a requisition in accordance with the attached Contribution Request Form. The Contribution Request Form shall contain all relevant details, including the Recipient's reference, which will be quoted in the disbursement payment advice. The Donor shall disburse the contribution upon receipt of the Contribution Request Form, which shall be signed by a qualified representative of the Recipient.

If part of the contribution for the same purpose has already been disbursed, the Recipient shall submit a report to the Donor on that part of the project. The report must be received by the Donor prior to any new disbursement.

The Contribution Request Form shall be submitted in the same year as the Government/Government Offices Decision was taken, unless otherwise agreed. The Contribution Request Form shall be submitted within three months of the commencement of the activities at the latest. If the Contribution Request Form has not been submitted within the stipulated time, the Recipient's right to the contribution will cease.

The contribution shall only be used in connection with activities for which the Recipient has received approval, or in accordance with other agreements.

Contributions to be used over a period longer than twelve months shall be disbursed in installments, unless otherwise agreed. Other reasons may exist for which the Donor may choose to disburse the contribution in installments.

4. ACCRUED INTEREST

Any interest accrued on disbursements shall be used for the same purpose as the contribution. The financial report shall give details of any accrued interest. If a repayment shall be made, any accrued interest shall be included.

August 2010

5. REPORTING

The Recipient shall submit activity reports and financial reports in accordance with the items below. The attached Guidelines for Reporting should be used.

5.1 Periods and time limits

Unless otherwise stipulated, the Recipient shall submit partial reports along with every new requisition for funds.

The final reports shall be submitted within three months of the finalisation of the activities. The Recipient shall also provide any reports the Donor requests. If satisfactory reports are not submitted, no further funds will be disbursed.

5.2 Activity report

The activity report shall give the Donor a basis for evaluation and for future decisions. It shall include the following:

- activities financed by the contribution; if the contribution only financed part of the activity, both the activity as a whole and the part for which the contribution was received shall be reported
- the actual results and goals achieved in relation to the results and goals outlined in the application or proposal; where these differ, reasons shall be given
- a presentation of any difficulties, shortcomings or deviations from agreed plans and a proposal for possible remedies
- a presentation of how the conclusions can or will be used in the future and any plans for further activities financed by contributions (in the final report only)

5.3 Financial report

The financial report shall present the total cost of the activities and explain how contributions from the Donor and other donors have been used. The Donor may visit, audit or evaluate the activities it finances. The Donor may request copies of the accounts and other supporting documents related to the contribution. The Recipient shall be able to give a separate report on the activities financed by the contribution.

The activities shall be considered in relation to the budget accepted by the Donor at the time of the decision. Any discrepancies shall be reported and explanation provided. A qualified representative of the Recipient shall sign the reports.

August 2010

5.4 Audit report

An auditor shall verify the correctness of the information in the financial report. The observations of the auditor shall be given in a certificate.

6. OBLIGATION TO REPAY

Funds not used for financing the operations or activities shall be reported and repaid to the Donor. The repayment shall include any interest accrued on the disbursed amount and be made in connection with the final report.

The repayment shall be made to:

Name of bank: SEB

IBAN: SE92 5000 0000 0543 9100 3775

SWIFT: ESSESESS

The reference number of the Donor, which is the Government/Government Offices Decision number in the pledging letter, shall be included.

The Recipient shall repay the disbursed amount, wholly or in part, to the Donor in the following cases.

6.1 Funds not used within the prescribed period

Unused funds or funds which will not be used within the prescribed period shall be repaid. The Recipient may apply for an extension of the activity period in which to use the funds. The application shall be submitted as soon as the Recipient recognises that the activity period must be extended or before the end of the agreed period at the latest.

6.2 The Swedish part of the contribution becomes too large in proportion to other financing

When the Swedish contribution is only intended to cover part of the total cost of the activities, funds shall be repaid if the total cost decreases and the Swedish contribution consequently covers a larger share of the total cost than agreed. The repayment shall be in the amount necessary to restore the original proportion of the Swedish contribution, unless otherwise agreed.

August 2010

6.3 The contribution has been used for purposes other than those agreed

If the contribution has been used for purposes other than those agreed, the Recipient shall repay the disbursed amount, wholly or in part, to the Donor.

6.4 The Recipient does not submit reports

If the Recipient does not submit reports in accordance with item 5, the Donor may require that the Recipient repay the disbursed amount, wholly or in part. This will not be required if the Recipient submits the reports within one month of receiving a reminder.

6.5 The Recipient submits incorrect information

If the Recipient, by submitting incorrect information, is granted a contribution based on this information, the Recipient shall repay the disbursed amount, wholly or in part. The same applies if incorrect information from the Recipient results in a contribution that is too large.

If the Recipient was aware, or should have been aware, that incorrect information was submitted, the Recipient shall repay the entire disbursed amount. This applies whether whole or part of the contribution has been used.

The obligation to repay can be waived, wholly or in part, if incorrect information has had an insignificant effect on the contribution.

If the Recipient was unaware of incorrect information being submitted, the obligation to repay only applies to unused funds. The obligation to repay does not apply to funds needed to cover future compulsory costs if the Recipient has agreed to these costs while unaware that the information was incorrect.

7. APPLICATION FOR POSTPONEMENT

The Recipient shall without reminder, comply with the repayment dates in the pledging letter and in the Standard Conditions.

If the Recipient has been asked to repay the contribution, wholly or in part, the repayment shall be made in accordance with the conditions laid down by the Donor.

August 2010

If the Recipient is not able to repay within the stipulated period of time, the Donor can upon application, agree to a postponement. The Donor must receive the application for postponement by the due date of the repayment at the latest.

The Recipient may apply for a waiver of the repayment if the request for repayment is considered unjustified.

II. ACTIVITY REPORT AND FINANCIAL REPORT

Unless otherwise agreed, the Recipient shall provide the Donor with the activity report and the financial report:

- in connection with each new request for funds
- when the activities have been finalised, and
- when requested by the Donor.

If the contribution has been paid in full, the activity report shall be provided together with the financial report and when requested by the Donor.

ACTIVITY REPORT

Partial report

- State the activities conducted with the support of the contribution. If the contribution has financed part of the activity, state the entire activity as well as the particular part for which the contribution has been received.
- State whether the activities have been carried out according to plan. If the activities have not been carried out according to plan, state the reasons why.
- State the goals and results achieved and compare them to the goals stated in the application or other similar document. If there are discrepancies, state the reasons for them.
- State how the activities are to be carried out in the future.
- State how much of the total contribution has been used during the period pertaining to this report, and how much has been used in comparison with the activities as a whole.
- State how much of the contribution has been used during the period pertaining to this report.
- State the estimated amount of funds required for the next activity period and how these funds will be used.

Final report

- If the contribution has financed part of the activity, state the entire activity as well as the particular part for which the contribution has been received.
- State the total use of the contribution and the activities carried out.
- State the total goals and results that have been achieved and compare them to the goals stated in the application or the goals otherwise agreed upon. If there are discrepancies, state the reasons for them.
- State how the results will be used in the future.

January 2010

- State whether the activities have achieved their aim. If the aim has not been achieved, state the reasons why.
- State whether the target group has been reached. If not, state the reasons why.
- State the reactions of the target group.
- State whether any plans exist for continued activities or for disseminating the information acquired.
- State whether any plans exist for continued activities financed by contributions.
- State any other circumstances that the Donor should be aware of.

FINANCIAL REPORT

The Recipient shall be able to give a separate account of the activities financed by the contribution. The activities shall be considered in relation to the budget approved by the Donor at the time of the decision. Any discrepancies shall be reported and explanation provided. A qualified representative of the Recipient shall sign the report.

The report should contain the following:

Revenues	Budget	Result
Contributions from the Donor
Contributions from other Donors
Other contributions

Expenditures	Budget	Result
Salaries, taxes, other personnel costs
Premises
Travel
Office costs
Costs for audits
Other costs

Contribution by the Recipient (Revenues minus Expenditures)	Budget	Result

- State whether the expenditure fits within the budget. If not, state any adjustments made to the budget or the activities.
- Report and provide explanation regarding any discrepancies between the budget and the results.

January 2010

AUDIT REPORT

An auditor shall verify the correctness of the information in the financial report. The observations of the auditor shall be given in a certificate.

III. REPAYMENT OF CONTRIBUTIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE FINAL REPORT

Funds not used for financing the operations or activities shall be reported and repaid to the Donor. The repayment shall include any interest accrued on the disbursed amount and be made in connection with the final report.

The repayment shall be made to:

Name of bank: SEB

IBAN: SE92 5000 0000 0543 9100 3775
